

Kathleen P. Eymann

Professional Experience:

Climate Clean, Inc.

President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary, 5/2009 to present, www.climateclean.net

Ensures the company is operating within the law at all times while generating and reviewing all contracts and transactions to limit risk exposure to the bottom line, personnel and the company's public image.

- Generated and scrutinized legal agreements with all service providers and contractors.
- Created corporate records system to ensure ease of access to all corporate formation and policy documents and compliance with internal and external legal requirements.
- Documented all stock related transactions including issuing stock options, subscription agreements and maintaining accurate Stock Transfer Record and Cap Table and compliance with Company Stock Incentive Plan.
- Attended all meeting of the company Board of Directors and advised Board regarding legal aspects of business matters.
- Drafted documents for Company financing including a convertible promissory note.
- Successfully secured ownership and protection of Company's Intellectual Property

Projects Unlimited Owner, Lobbyist, Executive Coach, 1/1994 to 5/2009

Provided coaching to individuals and businesses to develop their businesses, create strategic action plans and implement them. Lobbied federal and state governments on marine fisheries and natural resource issues.

- Facilitated development of policy and strategies to achieve legislative and business objectives and goals for multiple and diverse clients
- Coordinated implementation of strategies through effective communication with client, interest groups, the public and elected officials
- Increased effectiveness of business teams. Facilitated and coached management and their employees to focus on specific measurable goals and taking actions which resulted in increased income for business and strategic objectives being realized
- Produced written materials for lobbying efforts in a tight time frame that clearly illustrated issues and effectively communicated key points to legislators, congressional staff and other decision-makers
- Built coalition made up of fishing organizations and government agencies in support of federal legislation
- Successfully lobbied congressional members, staff and committee staff resulting in passage in two pieces of legislation authorizing state jurisdiction over the crab fishery in federal waters

Portland State University, Oregon Solutions

Project Manger, 9/2007 to 5/2009 <http://www.orsolutions.org>.

Facilitated process to solve community problems by reaching community consensus solutions that enhance the environment, economy and community. See, <http://www.orsolutions.org/southwest/portorford.htm>

- Drafted assessments for potential Oregon Solution projects in Coos Bay, Port Orford and Gold Beach, Oregon.
- Identified, recruited and formed Oregon Solutions Team of stakeholders concerned about the challenges facing the Port of Port Orford.
- Coordinated efforts of the Port of Port Orford, City of Port Orford, local interest groups, State of Oregon agencies and the US Army Corp of Engineers to find sustainable solution to problem of shoaling in the Port of Port Orford harbor.
- Facilitated process that brought together diverse and antagonistic community and organizations to design and fund new buildings and infrastructure at the Port of Port Orford.
- Succeeded in having the Oregon Way Advisory Group for federal stimulus money recommend funding for the Port Orford Harbor Project.

Portland Community College Foundation, Life by Design NW

Project Manager 7/2004 to 7/2007 See <http://www.lifebydesignnw.org/>

Managed leadership of several Portland area public, private and not-profit entities in mission to support people as they age in discovering their passion and purpose so they engage their wisdom and skill to strengthen the community and achieve personal fulfillment.

- Facilitated the Leadership Council in articulating its mission, overall vision and future development.
- Recruited, organized and supervised work of five different teams of four to six people each to develop aspects of the program
- Managed a highly professional six-person team that selected, evaluated and field tested assessment tools with over 200 participants
- Facilitated the production of a comprehensive strategic business plan
- Managed the development and implementation of productive relationships with state and local governments, community-based organizations and individual supporters
- Made extensive use of spreadsheets and project management tools.
- Developed and managed annual budget
- Led development of curriculum for full-day and multi-day workshops
- Provided all logistical support for workshops including securing location and food
- Key player in effort that resulted in award of over one million dollars in grant funding

Oregon Trial Lawyers Association Executive Director – 7/92 to 12/93

- Administered annual planning and budget process and implemented policy recommendations of a 30-member Board of Directors. Responsible for an annual $450,000 operating budget.
- Supervised and facilitated the development and implementations of OTLA's relationships and programs with local and state governments and community-based entities.
- Managed all details of annual convention and legal education workshops, including, securing speakers, rooms and food

- Maintained effective internal and external communications including supervision of publication of newsletters and bi-monthly magazine.
- Monitored all legislation on issues of concern to members.
- Coordinated legislative lobbying efforts including preparation of testimony by members, fact sheets, letters and other communications in a fast-paced environment.
- Trained in media appearances and media relations by nationally recognized experts.
- Supervised five full time staff members

Kathleen P. Eymann, Attorney at Law - Attorney in Private Practice 1/81 to 6/92

- Litigation practice with emphasis on employment law, civil rights, domestic relations, plaintiff's personal injury
- Represented Southwestern Oregon Community Action Programs, Inc. as their Legal and Public Affairs Director
- Supervised two fulltime staff: secretary and paralegal

Southwestern Oregon Community Action Programs, Inc. - Legal and Public Affairs Director 1/86 to 6/92

- Successfully appeared and advocated positions before local governments resulting in favorable land use decisions; favorable funding for public projects, and establishment of new programs serving low income people.
- Organized outreach to community members concerned about an issue and then fostered organization of grassroots and community-based organizations such as Friends of Head Start.
- Served as a key member of the management team of Southwestern Oregon Community Action Programs, Inc.
- Reviewed and provided oversight for application and administration of over 50 grants funding the agency.

Coos County Public Defender, 1979-1981

- Represented indigent clients accused of misdemeanors and felonies
- Founded Coos County Special Victim's Assistance program to offer comprehensive family support to families dealing with intra-family sexual abuse issues.
- Handled many juvenile cases and their involvement with state agencies.
-

Community Involvement Experience:

Citizens against LNG, and Citizens for Renewables, President, October 2015 to present;

The mission of Citizens for Renewables is to encourage the use of renewable energy, educate the public about the benefits of renewable energy and the detriments of fossil fuel infrastructure development.

Resource Innovations, Chair, 2008 to 2009, Member, 1999 to present;

The mission of Resource Innovations is to help government, business, and communities adopt sustainability-based thinking, policies, and programs. Monitored and guided development of the following programs:

- Climate Leadership Initiative
- Community Capacity and the Environment
- Sustainable Business and Job Development
- Sustainable Governance and Organizational Change

Oregon Board of Maritime Pilots, Chair, 2000 to 2007, Member, 1999;

Regulates pilots of the commercial maritime industry serving Oregon and Washington.

- Recognized for ability to provide pro-active fair leadership and process to all parties involved in contentious, complex policy and economic issues
- Appointment made by Governor John Kitzhaber and approved by the Oregon Senate
- Skill in understanding and analyzing issues and providing leadership resulted in being appointed Chair by Governor Kitzhaber's after serving one year
- Skilled in ability to maintain cooperative, productive working relationships with all sides
- Worked with the Oregon PUC in setting rates for pilotage services

Southwestern Oregon Community College, Elected Member, Board of Education 1988 to 1993

- In addition to service on Board, served on Budget Committee and on Executive Hiring Committee.

Northwest Coalition against Malicious Harassment, Founding Board Member 1986 to 1998
Organization with mission of promoting appreciation for human diversity and monitoring "hate crimes"

- Facilitated passage of Oregon Hate Crimes Legislation, which established increased penalty for "hate crimes" and required law enforcement to monitor and track "hate crimes."

Oregon Welfare Advisory Board, Board member 1987 to 1992

Served on statewide Board advising Oregon Adult and Family Services

Education:

Doctor of Jurisprudence, University of Oregon 1979

Bachelor of Arts, Philosophy, University of Oregon 1974

Universität Stuttgart, Philosophy, 1973-1974

Publications/Awards/Honors:

Workshop Presenter at Annual Convention, International Coach Federation 1999

Speaker at Continuing Legal Education Seminars, Oregon State Bar 1992, 1993

Public Service Merit Award, Oregon State Bar 1992

Woman Helping Women Award, Soroptomists Club, Coos Bay, OR 1992

Herbert Galton Award for Excellence in Labor Law, University of Oregon, 1979

Articles Editor and Author, Oregon Law Review 1978, 1979